COUNTRY'S FUTURE

'SUPPORT GOVT EFFORTS TO REVIVE ECONOMY'

We will not be able to progress if we do not unite to improve economy, says king

KUALA LUMPUR

YANG di-Pertuan Agong Sultan Muhammad V has asked Malaysians to fully support the strategies drawn up by the government to revive the country's economy.

He said although the country was hit by an economic downturn, the measures taken by the government had overcome external pressures on the

and not be negligent in carrying out their duties to the nation," His Majesty said.

Sultan Muhammad V reminded the younger generation, who are the nation's future, to equip themselves with knowledge and skills.

He said there was no "full stop" in seeking and acquiring knowledge and skills.

He said the government's efforts today would be in-

As such, he said, the National Day celebration would be joyful and harmonious, especially since it would be close to Aidiladha, which was celebrated by Muslims.

"As has been proven, people of various races, religions, cultures and ways of life can live harmoniously and with mutual respect.

"I hope Malaysians will continue to be united, adopt a give-and-take attitude in bearing the responsibility of a sovereign state because these are our unique features that have been our source of strength."

Sultan Muhammad V expressed his appreciation to the government and Prime Minister
